SPLIT

Split je mediteranski grad smješten na Marjanskom poluotoku u središtu istočne obale Jadrana. Zbog povoljnog zemljopisnog položaja Split ima tipičnu sredozemnu klimu s dugim, vrućim i suhim ljetima, a prosječna ljetna temperatura zraka iznosi 26°C sa 12 sunčanih sati dnevno.

Split je kulturno i političko središte Dalmacije, a službeno je sjedište Splitsko-Dalmatinske županije. U Splitu živi oko 180 000 ljudi, što ga čini drugim po veličini gradom u Hrvatskoj.

Službena povijest Splita seže 1700 godina u prošlost, kada je rimski car Dioklecijan dao sagraditi palaču na mjestu današnjeg grada, u koju se planirao povući po završetku svoje vladavine. Dioklecijanova palača nije samo izvanredan antički spomenik, nego je i nacionalno i svjetsko dobro. Zajedno s kasnijom srednjovjekovnom dogradnjom ona čini vrijedan arheološki i povijesno-umjetnički kompleks i zato je 1979. g. uvrštena na UNESCO-ov popis svjetske baštine. Danas je Split izvanredno povezan s ostalim dijelovima Hrvatske i Europom. Autocesta Split – Zagreb (popularno nazvana „Dalmatina“) svela je četiristokilometarsko putovanje na tri i pol do četiri sata ugodne vožnje automobilom. Dnevne trajektne linije spajaju Split i Anconu, a redovni i čarterski letovi dostupni su u Zračnoj luci „Split“.

Split se može pohvaliti s nekoliko muzeja, galerija, kazališta i kino-dvorana. Najvažniji ljetni kulturni događaj u Splitu svakako je „Splitsko ljeto“ — festival dramskih, opernih, glazbenih i plesnih događaja tijekom srpnja i kolovoza.

Split is a Mediterranean city, situated on the Marjan peninsula at the centre of the eastern Adriatic coast. Because of its favourable geographical position, Split has a typical Mediterranean climate, with long, dry, warm summers and the average summer air temperature in Split is 26°C (79°F), with 12 hours of direct sunlight.

Split is the cultural and political centre of Dalmatia and is the official seat of the Split–Dalmatia County. Approximately 180 000 people live in Split, making it the second-largest city in Croatia. The official history of Split stretches back for 1700 years, when the Roman emperor Diocletian built his palace (emulating the form of the Roman military camp) as a place to which he would retire after stepping down from the imperial throne. The palace of the Roman emperor Diocletian is not only an extraordinary monument from the ancient era, it also represents both a national and universal cultural heritage. The combination of the original palace and the later mediaeval buildings makes the Diocletian's palace a most remarkable archaeological, historical, and artistic building complex, which is why in 1979 it has been added to the UNESCO World Heritage list.

Split has excellent connections with the rest of Croatia and Europe. The new Split – Zagreb A1 motorway (popularly called “Dalmatina“) reduces the almost 400 km (250 mile) journey to mere 3,5–4 hours of enjoyable car-ride. Daily ferry lines connect Split and Ancona, and regular and charter flights are available at the Split airport.

Split boasts several museums, several galleries, theatres and cinemas. The cultural highlight of the summer is the Split Summer Festival, a monthlong festival of drama, opera, music and dancing performances, held in July and August.

DUGOPOLJE

Svakome tko jednom dođe u Dugopolje, jasno je zašto je dobilo upravo to ime. U kraškom prirodnom okruženju, ispod sjevernih padina planine Mosor, smjestilo se dugo plodno tlo koje su njegovi stanovnici stoljećima obrađivali. Sa sjeverne strane polja, cijelom njegovom dužinom, na malo uzdignutom terenu, prostire se naseljeno mjesto Dugopolje. Prvi put ime Dugopolje je zapisano 1283. godine i to na dokumentu na latinici kupoprodajnog karaktera. Od znamenitosti Dugopolja ističe se Špilja Vranjača smještena u podnožju središnjega dijela Mosora, s njegove sjeverne strane. Pristup je moguć iz Splita asfaltnom cestom preko Dugopolja do sela Kotlenica u zaselak Punde (25 km), te još 300 m makadamskim putem do ulaza u špilju. Zakonom o zaštiti prirode, špilja Vranjača je zaštićena 1963. godine kao geomorfološki spomenik prirode. Bogatstvo sigastih ukrasa zasigurno ju svrstavaju u najljepšu turistički uređenu špilju u Dalmaciji. Uređeni okoliš, s kamenim i drvenim klupama i stolovima, zatim borova šuma, te čista priroda i razgledanje uvijek atraktivne Vranjače, razlog su za posjet izletnika i ljubitelja prirode ovome živopisnom kraju.

Anyone who has at least once seen the Dugopolje field will immediately understand where its name comes from. In the Dalmatian karst, below the northern slopes of the Mosor mountain lies the long, fertile field that has been cultivated for centuries. Along the slightly elevated northern part of the field lies the community of Dugopolje. The first written record of the community dates from the year 1283. It's a record of purchase, written in latin characters. A notable feature of Dugopolje is the Vranjača (VRA–nya-chah) cave located in the foothills of the central part of the Mt. Mosor, on its northern side. When coming from Split, the road leads to the village of Kotlenica (KOT–le-nee-tsa) and the hamlet of Punde (POON–deh) (25 km from Split), and from there it's a further 300 m of dirt road to the cave entrance. Since 1963, the Vranjača cave is a protected geomorphological natural monument. The amount and beauty of limestone formations rank it among the most beautiful caves in Dalmatia accessible by tourists. Beautiful landscape with wooden and stone benches and tables, the surrounding pine woods combined with the tours in the cave provide a more than adequate reason for visiting this wonderful and colourful area.

Novoizgrađeni nogometni stadion u sklopu sportskog centra “HRVATSKI VITEZOVI“, svojim izgledom, kapacitetom i funkcionalnošću mnoge će ostaviti bez daha. Svojim sadržajima ispunjava sve uvjete propisane od strane Europske nogometne federacije što će se posebno osjetiti kada se upale reflektori tijekom noćnih izložbi. Objekt nogometnog stadiona prostire se na površini od 15000 m², sadrži 12000 m² zatvorenih korisnih površina, 2200 m² natkrivenih terasa, 5100 natkrivenih mjesta za sjedenje, 1500 m² poslovnih prostora za najam, 400 uređenih parkirališnih mjesta i velikim parkiranjem za kampere i autobuse, prostor sa svim potrebnim instalacijama za 60 novinara, te VIP ložu s ostalim pratećim sadržajima za 80 uzvanika. Udaljen od Splita svega 12km, odnosno desetak minuta vožnje autom po brzocesti, a s druge strane na samom izlazu s autoputa iz smjera Dubrovnika i Zagreba, ovaj će teren postaviti nove kriterije u organizaciji ljetnih noćnih izložbi.

As a part of the “Hrvatski vitezovi“ (“Croatian Knights“) sport centre, the newly built football (soccer) playing field will amaze its visitors with its appearance, capacity and functionality. It fulfils every criteria required by the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA), which really becomes apparent when the lights are turned on during the night shows. The football stadium occupies an area of 15,000 sq. metres, has a further 12,000 sq. m. of utility areas, 2,200 sq. m. of roofed terraces, 5,100 seats, 1,500 sq. m. of rentable business areas, 400 parking slots and a large parking area for campers and buses, a separate area for 60 reporters, and a VIP-lounge capable of receiving up to 80 guests. The stadium is a mere ten-minute ride away from Split (12 km), and conveniently located near the motorway exit for guests coming from the direction of Dubrovnik or Zagreb. With all these benefits, the FC “Dugopolje“ stadium will definitely help define the new criteria in the organisation of night shows.
